

Parts of a Plant

Parts of a Plant

Click on each label to place it

Stem

Roots

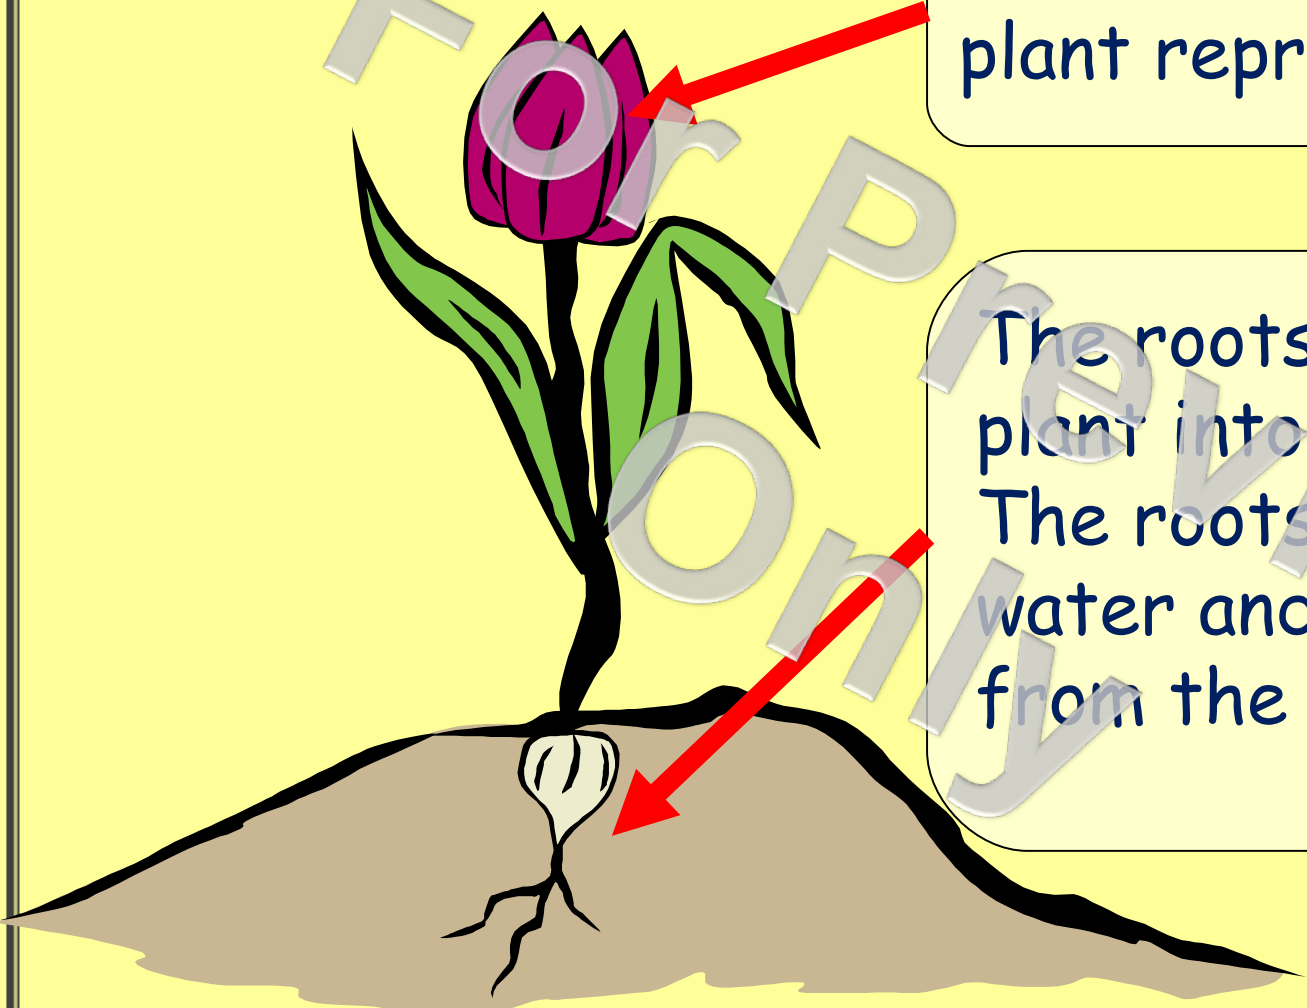

Flower

Leaves

The flower helps the plant reproduce.

The roots anchor the plant into the ground. The roots also take in water and nutrients from the soil.

Leaves make food for the plant. Leaves also exchange gases. Plants lose water through their leaves.

The stem supports the leaves and the flowers. Water travels up the stem.

